

What is ASSISTNZ?

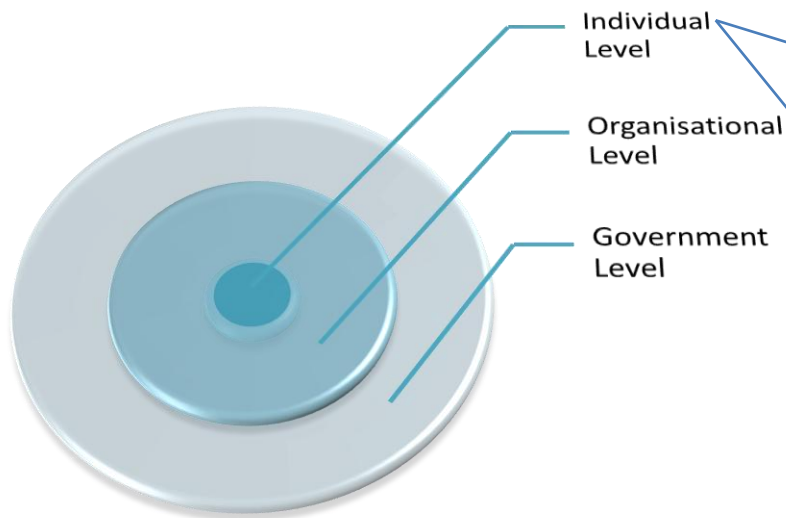

We are a proudly Kiwi initiative that provides a range of services and solutions revolving around Social Media, business development, digital technologies and legal advice for the “new world order”.

We aim to be the pioneers of social media planning, policy and protection for Kiwi’s and their businesses.

What does ASSISTNZ do?

We offer a range of workshops, training and consultancy through out the community.

For individuals we have two primary courses on offer:

Online Reputation Management-
an introduction to your rights and responsibilities online

Social Media with a purpose-using social media to help achieve your goals

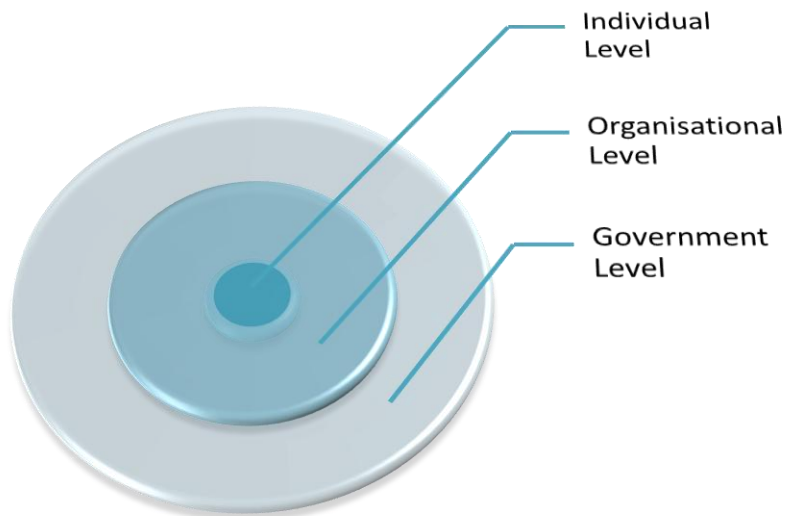

What does ASSISTNZ do?

As Kiwi businesses have increasing encounters with social media, we have developed two specific workshops

For businesses, we have two workshops available:

Online Reputation Management- a guide to managing your brand online & protecting your business

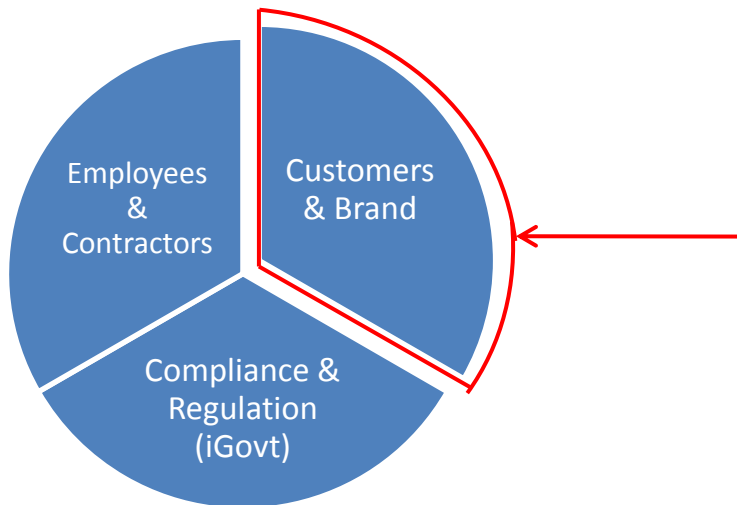

Promoting your Social Media- understanding & planning for effective introductions of social media in your business operations

What does ASSISTNZ do?

Social Media Policy is increasingly a must have for any modern business.

We commonly provide advise and solutions for Kiwi business struggling to establish their own protection from the social media use of others...

While some organisation have begun to focus on social media, most have limited their focus to the external aspects of their business operations.

Who is AssistNZ?

The co-directors of AssistNZ are a somewhat over educated pair;

Jess Maher (with background in Information Management, Human Resources & Small Business Development)

James Williamson (with a background in Pharmaceuticals, Expert Consulting and Law).

They work with a number of consultants whom are all also avid users and consumers of social media... These individuals come from a wide variety of different backgrounds and disciplines, each add unique and valuable experience, perspective and knowledge to our organisation.

Sweet As Social Media Society is an organisation which aims to promote the positive and valuable use of social media in NZ.

Where is AssistNZ?

Our offices are based on Royal Road in Massey, Waitakere City. Open Hrs 10am-6pm

We offer workshops and training around Auckland in a number of community centres and other facilities.
